THE ENTRANCE FEE?

IT'S FREE!

The Knowledge taken with you is Priceless!

In 1873 in Nebraska a new town was recorded in American history and was recognized in a declaration name, named Wilber located just south of the city of Lincoln. A different settlement from a different traditional world from across the ocean known as Czechoslovakia. Where in the country of Czechoslovakia, each town has a town traditional costume dress called Kroj, a traditional costume dress of a town was created for a new town in a new country of the United States and the traditions became American but American Czech that settled in Wilber.

Robert 'Bobby' Kennedy stopped by with Astronaut John Glenn and his wife in 1968. A recorded speech on push button in the Cultural Arts Center next door to the Wilber Czech Museum has on push button with the historical speech thanking the town for the warm friendly welcome in his campaign journey for President of the USA just shortly before he was assassinated a few weeks later. A thank you note is on display with Robert 'Bobby' Kennedy's signature that was sent to the people of Wilber is also on display.

In 1912, President Theodore Roosevelt, stopped by Wilber on the train. The same train tracks that presently has the housed grain elevator that houses 2 million bushels of grain that was completed in 1954 after President Theodore Roosevelt stopped by but before Robert Kennedy stopped by in 1958.

On exhibit in the Dvoracek Memorial Library in the Czech Heritage Room a memoir from W.W.II that included General Bill Paton's Czech translator's memo card with doll at the

This doll was a possession of Erma (Sue) Vonoba, sister of Joe T. Vosoba. According to Mr. Vosoba, Sue was with the American Red Cross stationed in Prance and Germany during World War II. While she was with General Patton's armored division, which entered Czechoslovakia before being ordered back by General Eisenhower, she served as an interpreter of the Czech language. This doll was given to Sue by an elderly lady who told her she knew she would never be able to go to America, so she wanted her doll to get there.

Donated by Joe and Kathy Vosoba August 1993

Dvoracek Memorial Library down the block from the Wilber Czech Museum and the Cultural Arts Center in Wilber, NE.

Fact W.W.II, Eleanor Roosevelt saw to the creation of the Universal Declaration of Human Right the Humanitarian Rights world doctrine that was formally adopted on December 10, 1948 in the United Nations.

AUGUST EVERY YEAR a 3-day American Czech FESTIVAL celebration the Ist full weekend in the month of August. The Czech celebration that brings you back the Aw! Of the breath to intake the town's traditions that include witnessing the Beseda dance, the crowning Miss Czech Slovak U.S. pageant and Kroj, the traditional town's dress.

The Town of Wilber Invites YOU to Stop by!

Wilber Czech Museum located 102 W Third Street, Wilber, NE Open 1-4 pm or by appointment every day. (Call for holiday scheduling a tour or available hours. For more information 1-402-821-2183 (those in the United States do not have to dial the (1).

Examples of Kroj in the
Wilber Czech Museum Exhibit
Your Invited to Stop-In for a Visit & Enjoy!