

Taking Submissions From All Civilians Victims of War on the World! Book title: 'Passed Away OF A War for A Civilian Victim' Please submit in English only. A book of many Civilians' View in Poetic Terms or letters to a hero or no hero to Reflect Upon. (Free Entry) (Free complimentary pdf book when completed emailed to the Civilian victim that submitted their entry.) Are you a Civilian Victim of War? You qualify to participate in putting in your own poetic words of 3 to 12 lines or 1 to 3 pages in a letter in length to a hero or no hero in a book that will be published and available on amazon.com FOR PEACE EFFORTS! Due to low economic station states growth of the United States the last few years, a reflection of what those endured or were rescued some way in times of war put into a poetic includes letters novel for the victims that survived a war that could not tell the details of survival at the time of war. The book will be a civilian's view/memoir/reflection good or bad that fought with or without weapon(s) to assist in or waited for the pinnacles of peace in times of history. Participate in writing the third book of 'PASSED AWAY OF A SUN'-the poetic novel written about the Mystery of what happen to those that are buried in Arlington National Cemetery. Peace for those they fought for in historical papers (country doctrines), cemeteries of victims and soldiers, family, friends and government employed. The hope of the future: A different kind of circle of life that someday the spilt milk will only be left on every table every day. Start to submit your entry in September 2016. Last Entry end of January 2017

Submission Form email carol.brunk@yahoo.com

_____ Email Address and Contact Phone Number

_____ Name of Civilian Victim that is entering

_____ Country of Civilian Victim _____ (Optional) Current Country You Reside

_____ Survival of Family Members (if you would like them included in the book)

Describe in 3 to 12 lines. 'What you experienced.' 'What you fought or waited for.' 'The reason for your country's fight for a world of humanitarian rights of equal rights for al men and women in all countries.' This is you as a civilian's view in poetic terms or a letter to reflect upon. This is a book written by those that survived the Wars from World War I up too present. Guidelines for Submissions are to be kept short. Submit in English Only. Entries will be transferred over verbatim of what is submitted.

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.
- 6.
- 7.
- 8.
- 9.
- 10.
- 11.
- 12.

_____ List the war, location and year your poetic or letter describe.

_____ List the flag colors and flag country your poetic or letter describe. Check your entries carefully before you submit your entry, your lines of poetry or letter will be transferred over to the book verbatim. If you do not get a confirmation email of submittal received a day later, please resubmit with note that you did not receive a confirmation for the entry with date submitted.

_____ Signature of Civilian Victim for release of written poetry or letter for printing only in the book called 'Passed Away OF A War for a Civilian Victim' written by civilian victims in time of war, formatted for historical reference and book sales by Carol L Brunk, Independent Educator Contractor in support of the profits going towards future educational materials to be posted on www.sightwordsataglance.com website and amazon.com